Life, real life, is something to be
enjoyed, and real
enjoyment comes
from love and
sacrifice for the
wellbeing of
others.
